

MOTHER'S FRIEND

A LINIMENT FOR EXTERNAL USE.

Not only is Mother's Friend a safe and simple remedy, but the comfort and healthful condition its use produces makes it of inestimable value to every expectant mother. Mother's Friend relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the different ligaments, overcomes nausea by counteraction, prevents backache and numbness of limbs, soothes the inflammation of the breast glands, and in every way aids in preserving the health and comfort of prospective mothers. Mother's Friend is a liniment for external massage, which by lubricating and expanding the different muscles and membranes, thoroughly prepares the system for baby's coming without danger to the mother. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers.

THE BRADFIELD CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Simplicity of treatment is the most apparent feature of midwinter millinery, due probably to the use of such costly and beautiful materials. Some of the newest models in hats of beaver and fur are trimmed only with a buckle or a pair of handsome pins. Nothing equals ostrich feathers, paradise and aigrettes for dress occasions while for their wear there are wings, quills and roque in a variety of colors. Gardenias, roses of satin and the cabbage rose of metallic cloth are now in vogue.

SOCIETY

The B. U. M. S., members of the senior class of the high school, gave a banquet at the Virginia Friday night for the Iota Kappas, the girls of the class. The class colors, blue and white, were used in the decorations, and the table centerpiece was a large bouquet of white carnations. Mr. Clarence Churchman was toastmaster and toasts were responded to by Mr. Frank Nuttman, Mr. Ital Luke, Miss Jean Rodgers, Mr. Earl Bush and Mr. Wayne Wingert. After the banquet the young people danced, the music being furnished by the high school orchestra. The company included Miss Bertha Hull, Miss Dorothy Porter, Miss May Williamson, Miss Florence Hamilton, Miss Jennie Heinzman, Miss Kathleen Middaugh, Miss Dorothy Brown, Miss Esther Witterlund, Miss Esther Lynch, Miss Marie Payne, Miss Florence Middaugh, Miss Jessie Ferrin, Miss Muriel Baxter, Miss Metta Eaten, Miss Jean Rodgers, Miss Anna Ballard, Mr. Earl Bush, Mr. Ital Luke, Mr. Herbert Blinn, Mr. Leroy Petro, Mr. Ray Davis, Mr. Leslie Hawley, Mr. Clarence Churchman, Mr. Walter Richardson, Mr. Frank Nuttman, Mr. Walter Chaney, Mr. Frank Ripley, Mr. Charles Davis and Mr. Darwin Bradley.

Mrs. George Snyder gave an informal whist party this afternoon for Mrs. Frank Smithies of Ann Arbor, Mich., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. T. J. Kellam.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Low and Miss Florence Mix, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Low and Mrs. Albert T. Reid, expected to leave for Pioche, Nev., today, but have just received word that the railroad tracks out in that part of the country are so badly demolished by washouts that the transportation service is demobilized for a number of weeks to come. While the visitors were dismayed by the intelligence, their friends will be glad that their stay is so prolonged and thus it is proven that every loss has its corresponding gain.

Mr. Walter Smith entertained the following men of the Bank of Topeka at 7 o'clock dinner at his bungalow in Highland Park Friday evening: Mr. Harry Wolf, Mr. R. H. Knowles, Mr. Arthur Wolf, Mr. E. Brown, Mr. W. L. Taylor, Mr. L. W. Huey, Mr. A. Bishop, Mr. L. Bishop, Mr. W. R. Barrett, Mr. Charles Hockett and Mr. J. Heym.

The January meeting of the Kansas Authors' club will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Morehouse, 216 West Eighth street. The program is in charge of the department of fiction, with Miss Elizabeth Barr as reader. Miss Barr will give a talk on fiction—that is the writing of fiction, construction of a story, etc.; Mr. C. D. Nichols will read an original story. After the program there will be a discussion of "A Certain Rich Man," and all the members will be allowed an expression of their ideas of the book. There will be some musical numbers and other features of the program that have not yet been fully arranged.

Mrs. Chester Woodward will entertain the Art club Monday afternoon at her home, 834 Buchanan street.

This coat suit displays a fad of the season, in its exaggerated length of rever and deep coat closing. A novel touch is given here by the odd little vest effect which appears to be part of the coat and to fold around the figure beneath the revers. The sleeves also have stitched cuff pieces, applied, corresponding to this. A single button closes the coat, smaller ones being used as trimming. The skirt is severely plain, having a ruled founce set in at the front gore to knee depth only, with stitching at either side. The material used in this was wide diagonal in old blue, with revers of black satin.

Those who attended the Varsity dance Friday evening at Steinberg's were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Spencer, Dr. and Mrs. Otto Kiene, Mr. and Mrs. George A. There surely has never been a winter—at least for some years—in which fur, beaver and imitations of fur have played so important a part. Toques of fur and beaver and toques of velvet, fur trimmed, seem to hold their place in My Lady's affections. Nothing could be more charming than this little toque of white beaver with its chic little tilt and revers, and its general air of coquetry. Laid lightly around the crown are two heavy gold cords, ending on the left side in a smart knot and a touffe of white coe feathers.

Daughter of American Ambassador to England.

London, England, Jan. 8.—Since the birth of her child, Mrs. John Ward, who for so many years was one of London's social leaders, has settled down to quiet domestic life. When she married the popular Englishman it was generally predicted she would be even more conspicuous in the social life than she had been in the past. But those who have looked forward to the time when Mrs. Ward would rule London society are despairing of her ever coming out as the leading London hostess.
